PUBLIC ACTS.

FINANCIAL.

1. An act to suspend the act passed March 28, 1863, entitled an act imposing taxes for the support of government, and to continue the rights and remedies of the commonwealth, and prescribing further regulations for licenses.

Suspends the tax bill until the 1st of January 1865. Reserves all rights, remedies and penalties under it to the commonwealth. Requires a license to be obtained in every case in which a license was required under the suspended act. Allows commissioner a fee of one dollar.

2. An act appropriating the public revenue for fiscal years 1863-4 and 1864-5.

Appropriations for fiscal year ending September 30, 1864:

Civil department:

Expenses of general assembly, $700,000. Salaries of judges and officers of the civil government, $250,000. Commonwealth's attorneys, clerks, sheriffs, &c. $75,000. Temporary clerks in auditor's office, $1,489 85. Messenger in auditor's office, $800. Civil contingent fund, $100,000. Civil prosecutions, $8,000. Vaccine agents, $1,000. Commissioners of revenue, $80,000. Printing for general assembly, books, paper, &c., $60,000. Clerks and commissioners, for services as to births, deaths and marriages, $2,000. Commissioners of the public warehouses, $150. Repairs and furnishing governor's house, $5,500. Repairs to capitol, $2,000. Printing for court of appeals, $4,000. Allowance to secretary of sinking fund, $300. Comparing polls, &c., $4,500. David Patterson, $100.

Military department:

Adjutant general and his clerk, $7,125. Public guard, $95,000. Ordnance department, $100,000. Militia establishment, $5,000. Military contingent fund, $50,000. Salaries of retired naval officers, $7,500. Military expenses, to be allowed by auditing board, $60,000. Military expenses, to be paid by auditor, $50,000. Salary of governor's aid, $3,500.

Annuities and similar claims:

Central Lunatic asylum, $152,000. Eastern lunatic asylum, $60,000. Lunatics in jail, $30,000. Virginia military institute, $13,500; and in addition thereto, $20,000. Institution for deaf, dumb and blind, $50,000.

Criminal charges:

Arrest and support of prisoners, and pay of jurors, witnesses, &c., $550,000. Penitentiary, $100,000. Slaves condemned, $80,000. Bringing slaves to penitentiary, $2,000.

For fiscal year ending September 30, 1865:

Civil department:

The appropriations are the same as in the preceding year, except for expenses of general assembly, which in this year are estimated at $ 565,000, and the repairs to governor's house, for which $ 500 is appropriated, and for comparing polls, &c., for which only $ 500 is appropriated.

Military department:

The appropriations for this department are the same with those of the preceding year, except that $1,000 only (a nominal sum) is appropriated for military expenses, to be allowed by the auditing board, it being the opinion of the general assembly that most or all of the military claims against the state would be audited and paid in the preceding year, and the appropriation of $ 4,032 for pensions.

Annuities and similar claims:

Appropriations the same as in the preceding year, except that the additional appropriation of $ 20,000 to the Virginia military institute is omitted.

Criminal charges:

Appropriations the same as in preceding year.

3. An act authorizing the receipt of the treasury notes of the Confederate States in payment of taxes and other public dues, and regulating when and how the same shall be received.

Notes issued after 1st of April receivable in payment of public dues. Notes issued prior to that time, except the notes of the denomination of one hundred dollars, receivable, until 10th December 1864, at the rate of 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ cents in the dollar. Notes of a less denomination than five dollars shall be received without abatement. Sheriffs not entitled to credit for notes issued prior to April 1st, 1864, unless paid in by the 25th of December 1864. Notes issued prior to 1st April 1864 receivable without abatement until 1st April 1864 for taxes due prior thereto. Sheriffs must pay them in by 25th of June 1864, and shall make oath that they were received as specified in the act. Notes of the denomination of five dollars receivable until the 10th of June. Act of September 14th repealed.

4. An act to authorize the funding of certain currency belonging to the state in confederate bonds, and to authorize the sale of such bonds if necessary, and to authorize the conversion of other notes and issues.

Constitutes the governor, treasurer and auditor of public accounts a board to fund the Confederate States treasury notes owned by the state, and those which may be hereafter received, in the six per cent. bonds of the Confederate States. Authorizes the board, or a majority of them, to sell such bonds (for the use of the state) at auction. Notes received subject to abatement, to be converted into new issue of the confederate government.

TRANSFER OF BONDS.

5. An act to authorize the transfer of certain bonds of the state, held in trust by the government of the United States for the Cherokee tribe of Indians, and providing for the payment of interest thereon.

Directs the second auditor to transfer on his books $90,000 from the secretary of the interior of the United States to the secretary of the treasury of the Confederate States, in trust for the tribe of Cherokee Indians. Cancels the certificates held by the secretary of the interior, and directs the issue of same to the secretary of the treasury. Provides for the payment of interest due and to become due. Act to take effect when the proper authorities of the confederate government file obligation with second auditor to indemnify the state.

SALT.

6. An act to authorize the impressment of certain salt wells, furnaces and other property.

Authorizes the impressment of the three double furnaces known as the "Charles Scott furnaces," and the appurtenances. Supply of water, &c. to be held until the 8th day of June 1865. Also the "Preston well," and all fixtures and engines connected therewith; also such slaves, horses, &c., as may be necessary in operating such furnaces and well; and such dwelling houses, lands, &c. as may be necessary. Authorizes the impressment of the present furnaces leased by the state (except that operated by Thomas R. Friend), with all the fixtures. Prescribes the manner of assessing the value of the property and the manner of appeal, if the assessment is not satisfactory. Denies the power to any court to award an injunction. Authorizes the impressment of standing wood, in case the price cannot be agreed upon. The duty is imposed upon the governor to enforce any impressment made under this act. The duties imposed and the powers conferred by previous laws upon the superintendent of the salt works and the board of supervisors, are continued, transportation on rail roads included. Board of supervisors have plenary powers to procure transportation, and to place engines and cars on the Virginia and Tennessee rail road. The board of supervisors are authorized to supply salt to the armies of the Confederate States, upon terms to be agreed upon. $2,000,000 appropriated to carry out the provisions of the act.

7. An act to amend the 5th section of the act to provide for the production and distribution of salt, passed March 30, 1863, and to amend the 11th section of an act to amend and re-enact the 11th section of an act for the production and distribution of salt, passed March 30, 1863, as amended by the act passed September 18, 1863.

Authorizes the superintendent of the salt works to appoint two deputy managers, at a salary of $3,500 each; two clerks, at a salary of $3,000 each; one shipping clerk, at a salary of $2,500; and a clerk to issue supplies, at a salary of $2,500. No officer to be interested in the purchase or sale of salt. To be dismissed if this provision is violated. Directs the manner in which the salt shall be sold and distributed by agents appointed by the county courts, or if courts cannot be held, by the board of supervisors, on the recommendation of three justices, or of the senator and delegate or delegates. Board of supervisors to fix price. Agents to give bond. Salt to be distributed to refugees. Courts and agents prohibited from disposing of salt otherwise than by distribution, except to prevent its falling in the hands of the enemy.

8. An act imposing fines on agents for failing to deliver salt to persons entitled thereto.

Imposes a fine of $20 upon agent who shall fail or refuse to deliver salt to the party entitled thereto; and upon conviction, agent to be removed. Agent not to be liable, if failure is caused by no neglect on his part.

PENITENTIARY.

9. An act amending and re-enacting chapter 213 of the Code of Virginia, re-organizing the penitentiary.

The provisions of this act are identical with the chapter of the Code, except that it abolishes the office of storekeeper and of the board of directors. The superintendent is charged generally with the entire management of the institution, and is directed to pay into the treasury, at stated periods, the proceeds arising from the sale of articles manufactured in the penitentiary, which are to be sold by him. The governor is authorized to appoint a purchasing clerk, for the purchase of supplies, &c. for the penitentiary. At the end of every quarter the governor appoints a commission to examine into the affairs of the penitentiary. Directs the superintendent to give bond in the penalty of $100,000. As the penitentiary is now controlled by the provisions of this act, it is deemed a further sketch is unnecessary.
